NO COMFORT IN THE PREDICTION

Weather Man Forecasts Clear Skies But Says That Temperature Will be Unchanged.

THE STORM DID SOME DAMAGE

Several Farm Buildings Are Riddled by Wind and One House is Hit by Lightning.

Little relief from the intense heat wave that came to these parts Sunday is promised in the weather forecasts for tomorrow which says that there will be no change in the temperature. Fair skies are prophesied.

The humid atmosphere added to the discomfiture of the people. The thermometer neither today nor yesterday registered as high a mark as it has earlier this month, but the air was heavy and made both days exceedingly disagreeable. Ninety degrees in the shade was the best the mercury could do today or yesterday. The rain yesterday caused a slight lowering of the temperature, but if anything the heat seemed worse.

Later reports indicate that the storm did more damage than was first thought in the eastern part of the county. Many large trees were blown down and twisted. A piece of timber land on Morton Gray's farm, east of the city was badly damaged by the high wind. All over the northeastern part of the county the high wind caused heavy losses.

At the farm of Fletcher Reed in the vicinity of Fairview a large poultry house was picked up by the wind and blown into the windmill. The poultry house was destroyed and the windmill was badly damaged.

A big hog barn on Thomas Saxon's farm in the same neighborhood was literally riddled by the wind. The roof was lifted off and the sides blown down. It will have to be rebuilt.

The roof of a porch on William Jackson's home in Fairview was blown off. When the roof was blown away the posts fell down and there was nothing left of the porch except the floor.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Ball of near New Salem was damaged to the extent of seventy-five or a hundred dollars yesterday by lightning which struck a chimney and ran down into one of the rooms of the house. Plastering was torn off and the room littered up, which made the damage look much greater than it really was.

REBUTTAL EVIDENCE TODAY

Vandenbark Case Drags Along in the Circuit Court.

The Vandenbark case, which has been on trial here for the past week continues to drag along slowly and the end is not yet in sight. The plaintiff is introducing evidence in rebuttal and several of the employes of the Lion store in Anderson have testified. Robert Turner, son of William H. Turned, the plaintiff, testified that he told the Vandenbarks the stock in the store at the time they bought it was worth $35,000 and showed them the daily sales sheets. He testified to conversations between his father and the Vandenbarks.

WILL SET NEW PACE FOR AMATUER SHOW

Cabaret Ministrel at Coliseum Thursday Expected to Excel all Home Talent Productions.

GREAT PREPARATIONS MADE

The carabet ministrel to be given by the Psi Iota Xi sorority and the Kappa Alpha Phi fraternity at the coliseum next Thursday evening is expected to excel any home talent production ever given here. More extensive preparations have been made for the show than was ever the case in an entertainment staged wholly by local people.

Dress rehearsals have been the rule for several days now and the caste is all set for the first curtain. The setting of the ministrel is in a cafe, with six tables. The stage has been enlarged to accomodate the production. It is easily the most pretentious thing ever attempted by Rushville people. A spotlight has been installed and will be used to great advantage.

The two organizations have exerted their best efforts to make the ministrel above the ordinary for amatuer productions. Persons who have had in charge the direction of the various features of the show have devoted much of their time the last few weeks to make it the success it most undoubtedly will be.

THRE KILLED.

Greenville, Mich., June 23.—Three are dead and one fatally injured as the result of an automobile being struck by a Pere Marquet train at Hales crossing one mile north of this city this morning.

MISHAPS COME IN BIG BUNCHES

Several Persons Are Injured in Minor Accidents Near Arlington and Gwynneville.

THREE RUNAWAYS REPORTED

Buggies Are Torn up and Occupants Painfully Hurt—Boy Injured in Bicycle Race.

Everard Johnson of Arlington is recovering from hurts he suffered Sunday evening when his horse ran away and tore up the buggy. It is the second buggy the horse has destroyed in the last few days. Johnson had a rather miraculous escape from serious injury.

This accident was only one of a series that happened in the vicinity of Arlington and Gwynneville Sunday and Sunday night. Owen Parker, a Gwynneville boy, sustained a fractured left arm while racing on a motorcycle with Charles Leisure.

The boys were racing through the street of Gwynneville, when the Parker lad attempted to guide his wheel upon the sidewalk. As he did so he lost control of it and plunged into a telephone pole. He suffered other injuries of a minor nature. Dr. Wiltshire reduced the fracture.

Lawrence Gunn, 17 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Gunn, of Morristown, was badly cut Sunday evening at nine o'clock, when he was hurled from his buggy near Gwynneville into a barbed wire fence. The young man had been to church at the little town and was driving home. A short distance from Gwynneville he met a man riding a motorcycle. For some unknown cause the rider did not pull to the side of the road, but instead rode straight into the front wheel of the buggy. The vehicle was upset. The horse, frightened by the crash, made a wild dash, finally tearing itself loose from the buggy.

Before the young man realized what was taking place, he found himself getting out of a barbed wire fence. His face, arms and hands were badly cut, the wounds bleeding profusely. The motorcycle rider was not hurt, and without stopping to assist Gunn, mounted his machine and rode away. The horse ran home and the youth caught an interurban car and rode to his home, where the injuries were dressed by Dr. R. S. McCray.

Ortis House, 35 years old, a prominent farmer, is lying at his home one mile houth of that place the result of injuries he received when his horse scared at some workmen on the new school in Fountaintown, and ran away, upsetting the buggy and throwing him out. His injuries seem to be of an internal nature and the attending physician Dr. Nave, does not have the brightest hopes for his complete recovery.

STRIKERS TURNED DOWN

Heads of Westinghouse Company Refuse Pleas of 12,500.

(By United Press.)

Pittsburg, Pa., June 23.—Westinghouse heads today turned down the 12,500 strikers from their four big plants in East Pittsburg and Swissvale, and the strike probably will continue. "Come back to work. Get the wheels turning again and we may consider them. The shop, however, will remain open."

That was briefly what President Herr of the company told the committee of strikers.

BOARD MAKES FEW CHANGES

County Reviewers Leaves Assessments of Rush County Corporations About the Same.

FEW EXCEPTIONS TO RULE

Banks Will Have to Pay More Taxes Than Heretofore — Public Utilities the Same.

The board of review in fixing the assessments of Rush county corporations did not make very many changes over last year. What changes were made are not very large. In most instances the assessments of the banks of the county were raised. All of the assessments are made exclusively of real estate. The amounts to be paid on by the railways and public utilities remains the same this year as last.

The list of corporations and the assessments as fixed by the board of review is as follows as compared with last year:

EAST BRIDGE IS OPENED

Extensive Repairs Are Made on Floor and Approaches.

The road leading into the city from the east has been opened following the repair of the two bridges between this city and East Hill cemetery. New floors were placed in the bridges and the approaches which were very rough, were repaired. A new abutment was placed under the covered bridge next to the cemetery. The road has been closed for over two weeks. The bridge on the road south of the city was repaired some time ago. The word was done under the supervision of J. C. King, road superintendent.

WANTS TO REMARRY HIS FIRST WIFE

George Wolfe Tells Pardon Board Today he Wants to Return to His Old Home in Rushville.

WAS SENT UP FOR BURGLARY

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, June 23. — Fine feathers caused the downfall of Geo. Wolfe of Rushville, according to his story today before the state pardon board. Induced by another woman to leave his wife, he was then coaxed by this woman to steal feathers from hats at dances. He married the second woman, he said, but now wants to return to Rushville and remarry his first wife and support her and the children.

Former Lieutenant Governor F. J. Hall of Rushville appeared for Wolfe. Wolfe finally broke into a millinery store and was sent up October 1, 1912 for from ten to twenty years for burglary.

WELL KNOWN HERE.

George Wolfe, son of Joe Wolfe, is well known by many people here. His trial at Indianapolis when he His first wife is said to be living here was convicted there is also recalled. now.

WILL ENFORCE FIREWORKS LAW

Police Department Announces Today Firing on Streets Must Stop Until Midnight July 3.

CAP PISTOLS UNDER THE BAN

The police department announced today that it would enforce the city ordinance prohibiting the shooting of fireworks before the Fourth of July. The police have received many complaints from various parts of the city.

The chief of police said today that the force would show no favors and would enforce the ordinance to the letter. It provides a fine of ten dollars as the maximum penalty. The police explain that the cap pistols which have been fired the last few days by so many boys come under the ban.

The ordinance provides that no fireworks of any description shall be fired before midnight, July 3 and that it is unlawful to shoot fireworks after midnight of July 4.

Russia's population is estimated at 171,000,000.

FRICTION TODAY BECOMES ACUTE

Trouble Feared Between American and Mexican Outposts Near Vera Cruz, Mexico.

FEELING WAS ONCE FRIENDLY

Since Disappearance of American Marine, Inquires Have Met With Only Jeers

REQUEST REFUSED.

(By United Press.)

Vera Cruz, Mexico, June 23.—General Funston today refused to allow the request of Mexican Federal commanders that an American train be run daily toward Mexico as far as Cemtemblateras. He did this believing that the Huerta troops are deliberately planning to provoke an attack and that this was a part of their plan.

For three days the American outposts have relieved that the Mexicans have been waiting for a chance to entangle them in strife. These reports were today made to General Funston and he refused the request for the train.

(By United Press.)

Vera Cruz, Mexico, June 23.—Friction between outposts of the American forces here and the Mexican command which hold the passes toward Mexico City, which has been increasing of late, became acute today when efforts were made today to learn something of the fate of a missing American marine who disappeared.

The commanding officer refused to give his name. He may have been killed as was Private Parks. The American outposts have shouted questions across the line. All the reply they got was jeers. Orders have been given that in no case must Americans be the eggressors if a clash comes.

Relations between the outposts have been rather friendly than otherwise until recently. Tobacco and other conveniences have passed between the pickets. In the last week, however, a steadily growing feeling of hostility has been manifest from Huerta's troops. All interchanges have ceased.

Emigration from the United Kingdom is still decreasing. April figures were 31,616 as compared with 52,585 last year.

The skin of the otter is capable of manipulation which makes it extremely difficult to detect it from that of the seal.

The Unhitched Horse

Here is a quotation from an advertising magazine that is well worth remembering:

"The average man looks on advertising as a mysterious something quite apart from ordinary business, says an observant exchange. You bet he does and that's right where he makes his first big mistake. Advertising is not something apart from the business, save as the horse is separate from the cart—when unhitched the cart is at a standstill."

When they come to choosing the right horse merchants and manufacturers find that newspaper advertising is the most active steed in the stable and costs less for upkeep.

DAILY REPUBLICAN WILL RECEIVE CONTRIBUTION FOR PLAYGROUND

Persons Who Have Not Had Opportunity to Help With Public Enterprise Will Get Chance.

NOT EVERYONE COULD BE SEEN

The Daily Republican will receive contributions to the public playground fund if there are any persons who care to contribute. According to last reports yesterday, over three hundred dollars had been raised by subscription.

Of course, not every one could be seen by J. D. Case, who has the subscription paper, so if there are any who feel that they would like to give financial assistance to this worthy enterprise, they may mail a check or send cash to the Republican and it will be turned over to the proper persons.

It was suggested that the Republican receive contributions for fear that every person who desired to help would not have ample opportunity. The fund is growing beyond the expectations of the most optimistic.

It is anticipated that a good sum will be made off the lawn fete which will be given on the court house lawn Saturday afternoon and evening The Portola benefit show which was to have been given Friday night has been postponed to Monday night.

A CHARMING REVIVAL OF THE OLD TIME BASQUE

It was bound to come sooner or later and to many of us it offers welcome relief from the loose fitting bodices and blouses that meet the eye on every side.

As shown in 8402, it closes straight down the front, has a fitted dart on either side, a sleeve set in to a rather long shoulder and a shaped piece around the bottom. Dark blue taffeta which is such a general favorite just now, is used here. The fine lace collar and the line of cut glass buttons down the front are the only triming. The skirt is a two-piece model slightly draped at the back and having a three-piece tunic. This design requires for size 36, 5⅝ yards of 36-inch material.

Another quaint, old-fashioned effect is introduced in 8390; the long, overskirt is caught up to display a plaited flounce about the feet. One of the Dolly Varden silks is used in this costume with an underskirt of plain cream colored satin. This gown may be made up in size 36, with 4⅞ yards of 36-inch material.

A dainty, drop-shoulder blouse and one of the new flaring flounce skirts is shown in 8385-8413. White cotton voile is used for the blouse with just a touch of colored embroidery outlining cuffs, revers and fronts; one of the fine black and white checked suitings is used for the skirt. The wide belt of the same material and the patch pockets lend a smart finish.

This blouse (8413) may be made up in size 36, with 2⅛ yards of 36-inch material; the skirt (8385) requires 2⅞ yards of 42-inch material for size 24.

HOW FRENCH PEOPLE CURE STOMACH TROUBLE

A household remedy of the French peasantry, consisting of pure vegetable oils, and said to possess wonderful merit in the treatment of the stomach, liver and intestinal troubles, has been introduced in this country by George H. Mayr, who for twenty years has been one of the leading down town druggists of Chicago and who himself was cured by its use. So quick and effective is its action that a single dose is usually enough to bring pronounced relief in the most stubborn cases, and many people who have tried it declare they never heard of anything to produce such remarkable results in so short a time. It is known as Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and can now be had at almost any drug store. It is now sold here by all druggists.

HYPNOTIST CAUSE OF NEW ORDINANCE

Exhibitions Will Be Prevented Because of Recent Visit of "Great Griffith."

YOUNG GIRL SLEEP FOR DAYS

(By United Press.)

Hammond, Ind., June 23.—Having had the "Great Griffith" in our midst for several days, this city probably will be able to thank the hypnotist for a new ordinance. The city council at a recent meeting instructed the city attorney to draw up an ordinance preventing hypnotic and similar exhibitions in the down-town windows.

The "Great Griffith" caused a great deal of discussion here by hypnotizing a young girl and causing her to sleep in a cigar store window under the gaze of hundreds of men for days at a time.

This same hypnotist was in Gary, where he set a boy to peddling an imaginary bicycle and kept him with legs waiving in the air for many hours. He was hauled into court and as a result left Gary greatly chagrined but rather obstinant.

A. P. Wagoner of this city is organizing an orchestra which will be similar to a symphony, only on a smaller scale. According. to Mr. Wagoner the orchestra will be composed of twenty pieces and will give concerts this summer, if the people so desire them.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you.

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

Notice to Non-Resident.

State of Indiana, Rush Sounty, ss.: In the Rush Circuit Court, May Term, 1914.

John S. Davis vs. Robert Cassady. et al. Complaint N. 308.

Now comes the Plaintiff, by Young & Young, attorneys, and files complaint herein, together with an affidavit by John S. Davis that said defendants, Thomas G. Meredith, Maud Meredith, Miami, Florida, May Bennett, William Bennett, Chicago, Ill., Edward Cassady, Helen Cassady and Orville Cassady, Freeport, Ill., are not residents of the State of Indiana; that said action is for quiet title and that said non-resident defendants are necessary parties thereto.

Notice is therefore hereby given said Defendants last named, that unless they be and appear on the first day of the next term of the Rush Circuit Court, to be holden on the 1st Monday of September A. D. 1914, at the Court House in Rushville in said County and State, and answer or demur to said complaint, the same will be heard and determined in their absence.

Witness my name and the Seal of said Court, affixed at Rushville this 16th day of June A. D. 1914.

SCENE FROM "THE GOOD-FOR-NOTHING."

JANE WOLFE.

VERY few performers in the movies have as many friends as little Jane Wolfe. She has a sunny disposition and a cheery smile, which accounts for a great many of them. But, then, her ability before the camera has caught many more.

"The Good-For-Nothing" features "Broncho Billy" Anderson in a splendid four reel feature. Anderson appears at his best in this film, and that's "going some."

In "The Estrangement" a lazy man deserts his family, but eventually comes to himself, and returns to home responsibilities in time to save his children from disgrace.

"The Father's Scapegoat" is one of the best of the new releases.

Caught in a trap, the father, believing he would be able to readjust the wrong, blamed his scapegrace son for a crime he himself had committed.

It resulted in spurring the son on into a successful life. With it came the return of his good name.

Andy plays Cupid in the sixth adventure of "Andy," by Mark Swan.

Andy doesn't want beautiful Elsie Worth to marry the count to whom she is engaged. Joe Parker is Andy's idea of the kind of a husband for Elsie. So our hero gets busy and turns the count's well laid matrimonial plans very much inside out.

A tramp, evidently weary of walking, discovers a messenger boy's bicycle and takes possession of it in "His First Ride." He then starts around the town and runs amuck against various people, accomplishing hilarious results with more varieties of funny falls than one usually experiences in a pair of slap stick comedies.

"Simp Simpson and the Spirits" is a new feature which has just been released.

Cowboy Simpson is not much on looks, but is some shooter and handy fighter and never sidesteps trouble. Professor Mahatma, oriental mystic, opens up a dirty curtained shop of occult power in Rattlesnake Gulch. "Simp," being very curious about himself, learns, for the price of $25, that he has wonderful occult power. He falls into a mumbling mood and everybody around town takes advantage of his hypnotic state by playing tricks upon him.

The Real Boss

It is ridiculous for Albert J. Beveridge to prat about the bosses in the Republican and Democratic parties when he is the man who is dictating the fortunes of the Bull Moose party in Indiana. He alone is the ruler. Common report is that he wants to hold sway over the county organization and name the candidates wherever possible.

No one is going to deny the fact that he is not dictating the congressional nominees. He has picked all but two of them and they have not been named yet. He probably has it all arranged who shall "accept" these honors. It is current report that Beveridge "made a miscue" when he picked the eleventh district nominee, a former Democrat, because interviews Shively gave out last campaign contained forceful statements favoring Wilson and Bryan.

Beveridge is going about over the state holding alleged conferences by districts, but the conference here and what transpired at the "secret" session revealed what the purpose of the so-called conferences really is. They have sort of a school for county chairman and Beveridge is the teacher. He did not mince words in the conference here where only Progressives were supposed to be present. On the "roll call" he made it plain in choppy language that county chairmen were to do as he said.

Chairman Stoops of Fayette county told Beveridge that the Progressive candidate for judge of the Fayette-Union-Franklin district did not care to run because he did not want to sacrifice his practice in a hopeless race and that the sentiment was to center their forces on Raymond Springer, the Republican candidate, to defeat Judge George Gray.

The Connersville News Saturday, in commenting on the conference here, offers an excuse for Beveridge in stating that he may not be conversant with the facts. Although he may not have been before the conference, he was when Chairman Stoops told him of the real conditions. The News says most of the opposition to a Progressive candidate to split the vote against Gray came from the Progressive themselves. But in the face of this, Beveridge, the accredited leader in Indiana of the party that claimed to be rid of all leaders' dictation and so-called political bosses, says that the chairman should get a candidate who would run. Beveridge and the Progressive party is not what the Indianapolis political hand bill claims for it. Voters are finding that out in Indiana, and other states for that matter, and a great many more of them are due to have their eyes opened.

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

The Unreliable Star

(Shelbyville News, Ind.)

For the making or false statements and exaggerating reports without the least cause or foundation, the Indianapolis Star has become notorious. If it should at some time or other, by mistake, happen to tell the truth in its news columns it would receive no credit for the reason that no one would believe it until the statement had been verified from some other source. Take its report of the republican congressional convention, held at Cambridge City on Tuesday, June 16, and reported in the Star the day following. Hardly more false statements could have have been uttered by the writer in the same space had he tried. We quote from the Star:

"It had been the general understanding that Judge D. W. Comstock of Richmond, was to be nominated by acclamation, Lynch having previously announced his intention to withdraw in Comstock's favor, friends of the Wayne county man assert. When the Wayne county delegation arrived at Cambridge City they found Lynch was an active candidate, with James E. Watson of Rushville, acting as director general of his campaign.

"Charges of 'double-cross' were made freely by the Wayne delegates and a formal demand was made that Lynch withdraw his candidacy, but he refused, although some of the members of the Henry county delegation said they urged him to step aside in favor of Judge Comstock for the sake of party harmony.

"When Judge Comstock saw that he would have a contest he declined to permit his name to be placed in nominatoin and as a result the New Castle man was nominated by acclamation. The fact that Lynch was an active candidate was not generally known until this morning."

Now, the Star, ought to know that Judge D W. Comstock is no baby. Neither is he a coward. He also awards to every republican the same rights that he asks for himself. It was not Watson's "doings", but it was the work and decision of the republican delegates of the Sixth district in convention assembled that nominated Mr. Lynch for Congres and this nomination is heartily endorsed by and will receive the enthusiastic support of Judge D. W. Comstock.

DEMONSTRATION, OF THE DUNNING SYSTEM GIVEN.

A demonstration of the Dunning system was given Monday afternoon by Mrs. Will Meredith at her home in North Morgan street. The program was made up mainly of class work, fully illustrating the system, five classes being represented

It was charmingly given and greatly enjoyed by the guests, most of whom were parents of the children.

The little tots displayed a knowledge of the foundation principles of music; a ready information about the great composers, and skill at the keyboard, as well as technical knowledge of it, that was most unusual.

The hand-training song by four little girls, and a sight-reading contest were features of special interest.

Vocal and instrumental solos and select recitations were also included.

The Dunning system is an improved method of music study for beginners.

Mrs. Carrie C. Dunning, the originator of the system, after returning to America from several years of study with Franklin Prenteur and Leschetizky, the renowned Vienna instructor, set to work to evolve some means to render less arduous the opening years of a child's musical career. Mrs. Dunning had long felt that a simple, entertaining, as well as an instructive method might be used in the early education of the child, whereby the rudiments of music, might be made attractive.

The system eliminates the tedious drudgery of first principles of music by presenting each topic in a manner that appeals to the child's sense of pleasure.

Written work teaches the student must learn to write as well as inter- that music as a language. They pret.

Real piano work illustrates the principles taught by games and exercises.

Pictures and verses give an intimate knowledge of the great composers, and cultivate a taste for their compositions.

He was a member of the Masonic, Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias lodges.

He is survived by his widow and one child. He is also survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Rhodes and two brothers, Albert and Wilbur, and one sister, Mrs. Daisy Henley of Gas City. The funeral services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at the Friends church and burial will take place in the Carthage cemetery.

Efforts Made to Compromise Case of J. C. Davis vs J.T. Meek

Efforts are being made to compromise the damage suit of J. C. Davis of near Clarksburg, former sheriff of Decatur county, against John T. Meek, which was brought a few months ago in the Decatur circuit court. The suit is for ten thousand dollars. The case was set for trial yesterday, but was continued because of efforts of the defense to compromise. Another suit was brought in which the plaintiff and defendant were the same and the charge was slander. It has been sent to Decatur county on a change of venue. John A. Titsworth of this city is the attorney for the plaintiff.

OVER 100 WATER METERS ORDERED

Requests at Rate of Almost Fifty a Day, Not Counting Today, Since Notice Was Issued.

MUST BE ORDERED BY JULY 1st.

Since the city sent notices last Friday to water consumers that water meters must be ordered by the first of July, there had been a hundred and ten meters ordered up to this afternoon at two o'clock. Orders, accompanied by deposits, were received for fifty meters Saturday and yesterday orders for forty-seven more were received. This afternoon there had been thirteen more ordered. No orders will be accepted unless they are acompanied by the deposit of $10.40, the initial cost of the meter.

Because of a misconstruction placed on the order of the council by many, it was believed that the meters had to be installed by the July first. The city officials say it would be impossible to install over a thousand meters by that time. All the city asks is a declaration that a meter will be installed so that they may be ordered.

Democratic Leaders in House Force 23 More Members than Necessary for Quorum to Stay

WANT TO GET INTO CAMPAIGN

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 23.—Fearing efforts might be made to "put one over" Democratic leaders in the house are forcing 23 more members than constitute a quorum to remain in Washington. Of the members now here a majority are Democrats.

Even with this arrangement the administration leaders fear an adjournment resolution may be rushed through because of the anxiety of scores of members, especially Democrats, to go home and get into the campaign.

ARMY HONORS MERRILLAT.

Star Athlete Elected Captain of Baseball Team For Next Year.

The Army baseball team of 1914 has been disbanded. The men met and elected Cadet Louis A. Merrillat, '15, captain for next year.

Cadet Merrillat was appointed to the Military academy from the First Congress district of Illinois, and entered in June, 1911. For the last two seasons he has played center field on the Army team. He covers plenty of ground in the outfield and is considered one of the best base runners and most timely hitter on the team. Cadet Merrillat plays end on the Army football eleven, and won fame on the gridiron last fall by his work with the forward pass. He is twenty-two years of age.

HOW INDIAN SIGN RUINS FIGHTERS

Psychological Influence Has Changed Ring History.

SOME FAMOUS INSTANCES.

Corbett Had Joe Choynski Under the Ban In All Four Fights—Tommy West's Spell Over Joe Walcott One of Mysteries of the Prize Ring.

The "Indian sign" has doubtless played a more important part in the changing of ring history than any other force, excluding skill.

It is a sort of hypnotic influence which we in this country have been aware of for some years. It is where one fighter exercises strange power over another he has once knocked out or decisively defeated.

Jim Corbett and Joe Choynski met in the ring four times. The first trip they fought only four rounds when the police interfered. Their second battle was a fierce affair of twenty-eight sessions, and Corbett won, probably the hardest fight of his whole career. In their third meeting Corbett again beat courageous Joseph in four rounds.

"Mysterious Billy" Smith gave Tommy Ryan some terrific battles, but he could never lower his colors. Their first meeting was a six round draw. Their second fight was one of the most thrilling combats ever seen in the arena. It was stopped and declared a draw on account of the helpless condition of both men at the end of the eighteenth round.

They fought another hot six rounds without either having any decided advantage. But finally Ryan put the K. O. wallop over on Billy in four rounds, and this seemed to convince Smith that Tommy had the sign on him.

There was one man clever Charley Mitchell, the English boxing champion, could never put the Indian sign over on. He was Jack Burke, the so called "Irish Lad."

This pair of "bruins" met four times within the ropes without gaining a verdict over each other. Once they fought with bare knuckles under the old London rules at the Ascot race track in England. Their three other encounters were with big gloves under Queensberry rules in this country.

Tommy Burns, the former heavyweight champion, had to put the K. O. three times over on Bill Squires before the latter realized Tommy had the fatal sign on him. Burns first sent Squires to slumber in one round at Los Angeles. In two sessions he repeated the dose in Paris and finally did the trick again in thirteen rounds at Sydney, N. S. W. So Squires experienced the "Indian sign" from Burns in three different countries, thousands of miles apart, under three different conditions.

Tommy West in his prime certainly had the hypnotic influence over Joe Walcott, the "giant killer." Twice did Tommy gain decisions over the black terror. And yet Walcott could annihilate big fellows that West would not think of clashing with. Joe and Tommy met five times without a K. O. on either side, but West most always led the way in their long fights. They always put up a hurricane battle with terrific walloping.

A curious case is that of Frankie Burns, bantam. He has the Indian sign on three or four contenders for the title, but can't do a thing against many second raters.

Packey McFarland, the masterly boxer, has the "Indian sign" on quite a number of fighters, but particularly Tommy Murphy, whom he has defeated with perfect ease at least three times. When Tommy gets in front of the Chicago wizard he seems to lose all confidence and knowledge of the game. He appears like a novice taking a boxing lesson from a professor of the manly art. McFarland, however, always manages to have ten or twelve pounds on such men as Murphy, which is hardly fair. Of course this extra poundage is a great advantage for Packey. McFarland, like many other star ring men, has the hypnotic eye. Maybe it's this piercing optic that often causes one fighter to have the "Indian sign" over another.

JOE CROSBY DIES IN INDIANAPOLIS

Former Rushville Business Man Expires at Age of 50 Years of Heart Disease.

BODY WILL BE BROUGHT HERE

Joseph Crosby, formerly of this city, died last evening at his home in Indianapolis following a several months' illness from heart disease and a complication of diseases. Mr. Crosby was a brother of Edward Crosby of this city and Charles Crosby of Milroy, and until about eight years ago was engaged in business here with his brother Edward. He was a native of Rush county and was born on the old Crosby homestead near Milroy. He was fifty-eight years old. On leaving this city he engaged in the transfer business in Indianapolis.

He is survived by his widow and one daughter Miss Irene Crosby. The funeral services will be conducted Thursday morning at ten o'clock in the Milroy Methodist church and burial will take place in the cemetery there.

BIDS ARE RECEIVED FOR NEW BUILDING

Four Contractors Offer to Build the School Building and Board Considers Propositions.

STEVEN PURCELL IS LOW

Late this afternoon the school board had not awarded the contract for the proposed building to be erected on the east half of the lot occupied by the Graham building. The board was working on the bids received and was expected to reach a decision. The low bidder was Steven Purcell of Rochester, Ind. His bid for the building was $41,990. Pierson and Cotton bid $43,500; Morris Winship, $44,270, and John Crawley, $44,763.

The low bid for the heating was $6,586.75, submitted by the Bryce Plumbing and Heating company. The Capp Plumbing and Electrical company was low on the vacuum cleaner, bidding $287.85. The bids for the plumbing were: Capp, $6,-191.97; J. L. Walker, $5,452; Hoosier Plumbing Co., $4755. The bids for the electrical work were as follows: Capp, $1,300; J. L. Walker, $1,478; Foxworthy, $1,192; Hatfield, $986, and Chyne, $975.

Cincinnati is wild with its team within hailing distance of the National league pennant, and the fans are preparing to turn over the keys of the city to Herzog. All attendance records for this time of the year have been broken, and the town is even in a more frenzied state than when Hank O'Day had the Reds in first place in the spring of 1912.

The fans are starting a movement to put up a purse of $25,000, to be turned over to the Reds if they win the pennant. The Chamber of Commerce took official action on the great spurt of the Reds and congratulated Herzog on his splendid showing and expressed a keen desire that he beat out the Giants for the championship.

Al Bridwell has taken the place of Miner Brown as manager of the St. Louis Feds. The former Cub twirling star will go on the road as a scout.

Otto Stifel said that the St. Louis directors intend to have a winner. "I cannot make any definite statement," he said, "but I will admit that there is a big shakeup under consideration."

The directors of the club, it was said by an official, think Brown's easy going methods are the cause of the lack of fighting spirit that is keeping the locals down. It is said that Brown himself suggested Bridwell as his successor.

Under the new regime Marsans, jumper from the Reds, is expected to play first base.

Somersetshire is devoted chiefly to dairying, cattle raising and sheep herding.

KILLED BY A MOSQUITO

Exactly — there are hundreds of deaths each year that can be directly or indirectly traced to the simple little bites of mosquitoes. These little pests carry and spread disease. It's not so much the sting of their bite as the dread of infection. Therefore you should take extra precaution to treat mosquito bites as being more than mere bites.

Penslar Skeeter Dig

not only allays the itch and sting, but sterilizes the part affected because of its antiseptic and healing properties. Used as a protection from the effect of mosquito bites, this lotion becomes doubly valuable. Put a bottle of it in your grip. --

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

BELTS AND BUTTONS ARE THE POINTS OF INTEREST ON THIS SUMMER'S COTTON FROCKS

A frock that requires a strenuous tubbing now and then is allowed very few frills and trimmings unless they be removable. We depend upon attractive girdles, sashes, vest effects and all sorts of buttons, this season.

Patent leather, suede, satin, velvet and taffetas are all used for the girdles and the same might be said of the buttons too. There are numbers of porcelain and bone novelties made with generous shanks which are often pinned to the underside of the bodice with tiny safety pins; this of course, makes it comparatively easy to remove them and only a moment's work to replace.

The frock shown in 8342 is developed in a rice crepe, the ground being plain white and the broken stripes of black; black velvet buttons and an oddly arranged velvet girdle lend character and contrast to the costume. This dress may be copied in size 36, with 4¾ yards of 36-inch material.

A brown and white striped cotton ratine fashion, 8211; neck and sleeves are finished with a frill of net bordered with a narrow strip of taffeta and the wide leather belt is of brown suede.

This design is well suited to the various striped cottons, voile, crepe, ratine, etc., that are so popular just now and would also make up attractively in foulard or one of the other summer silks.

For size 36, 5⅞ yards of 36-inch material is required.

MURDER TRIAL STARTED TODAY

Anthony Petras, Alleged to Have Killed Theresa Hollander, Begins Fight for Life

EVIDENCE IS CIRCUMSTANTIAL

Was Seen in Her Company Only Short Time Before and State Believes it Has Motive

(By United Press.)

Aurora, Ill., June 23.—Anthony Petras, young factory worker, was placed on trial here Monday for the murder of pretty Theresa Hollander, who was clubbed to death on the night of Fed. 16, 1914 in St. Nicholas cemetery, near her home.

Petras' young wife and a host of friends are confident that he will never be convicted upon the circumstantial evidence on which the state will rely. Because of the bitter feeling since Petras' arrest, attorneys for both sides said they expected to consume much time in getting a jury.

Theresa Hollander was slain on her way home from a lodge meeting. She left a street car and started to walk to her home, opposite the cemetery. At about midnight, her father went in search of her and found her body in the graveyard, the skull crushed and a bloodspattered beam lying beside her.

Young Petras was arrested a few hours later at his home near the Hollander residence. Suspicion was directed at him because he rode home on the same street car with Miss Hollander, though he declared he left the car a block from the spot where she alighted and went directly to his home. The fact that he had been Miss Hollander's most ardent suitor before he was married last September and that she had dismissed him because of her parents' objections was advanced as a possible motive.

A number of Aurora business men rallied to Petras' defense and furnished $10,000 bond. He returned to work, but the May grand jury indicted him for first degree murder and he was surrendered and placed in jail.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich. — "I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Saved from the Grave,' and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong." — Mrs. ALONZO E. BAKER, 9 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich.

Not Well Enough to Work.

In these words is hidden the tragedy of many a woman, housekeeper or wage earner who supports herself and is often helping to support a family, on meagre wages. Whether in house, office, factory, shop, store or kitchen, woman should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It promotes that vigor which makes work easy. The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn. Mass.

MANY "LIFERS" AFTER PARDONS

State Board is Beseiged with Petition Dealing with Prisioners Serving Long Terms

ONE WOMAN IS IN THE LIST

Rea Kraus, Who Has Been in Ten Years, is Opposed by Former Husband William Krauss

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 23.—Seldom has the state pardon board had before it so many petitions for pardon from "lifers" as have been presented for the session opening Monday. 9 men and one woman serving life terms in the penitentiary and woman's prison will appear either in person or by attorney and will by every possible means seek to win the sympathy and consideration of the three board members.

Over-tapping all others in general interest is the case of Rae Krauss, the Hartford City murderess, who ten years ago killed her stepdaughter in a fit of jealousy. Her petition will be met with a storm of protest from Hartford City, and William Krauss, her former husband will be on hand personally to oppose it.

Other "lifers" who will appeal are:

Francis M. Duncan, who murdered James LaFollette at Greenfield six years ago.

Frank Morris, sentenced from Clark county in 1906 for criminal assault.

John Walker who killed his sweetheart in Allen county in 1905. Walker has several times before applied for parole, but each time Albert E. Melching, father of Welker's victim, has appeared before the board vigorously protesting. Mr. Melching will not agree to a pardon for Welker on his present petition

Edwart Taylor, who killed William Demody of Indianapolis on Christmas day, 1913, at Madison, Ind.

Reuben Wheat, who killed his best friend, a man named White in 1909. White had made disparaging remarks about Wheat's wife as they approached the latter's home in Knox county. They had been drinking.

J. W. Osberne who killed Fairy McClain Miller in Kokomo in 1907 when intoxicated. He fled to the northern lumber camps but returned and gave himself up.

Levi Kessler, sentenced from De Kalb county in 1886, for murdering a man in a drunken row. The fight started over a watch.

Wallace Thompson, sentenced from Cass county.

There are only a small proportion of the cases filed with the board. Short term prisoners in great numbers will be heard.

SAYS NEWSPAPERS ARE BEST MEDIUM

Spasmodic Advertising is Bad, H. T. Griffith Tells Indiana Furniture Dealers at Indianapolis.

SAYS IT MUST BE CONTINUAL

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20.—The importance of newspaper advertising, when it is done wisely and attractively, was emphasized yesterday by Howard T. Griffith, manager of the Udell works, of Indianapolis, who spoke before the Indiana Retail Furniture Dealers' Association at the Claypool hotel.

"Your local newspapers are certainly the best mediums for publicity," said Mr. Griffith. "My advice would be to select carefully those that reach the clientele you want and use such papers religiously. Spasmodic advertising—in and out—is bad. It is the continual dropping of water that wears away the stone.

TWO SIMPLE DESIGNS FOR EMBROIDERING TOWEL ENDS

One enjoys a vacation better if every moment is engaged, not necessarily actively, for one often enjoys spending an hour or so during the hotest part of the day sitting quietly on the piazza or under a shady tree. During these quiet hours a bit of embroidery is acceptable company. Towels make an excellent "pick-up," and are not hard to do.

These two designs for towels are suitable for use on huckaback or damask and should be embroidered with white mercerized cotton No. 20. Pattern 14341 should be developed in Wallachion stitch and, if desired, a 2-inch initial may be placed in the wreath. This design is 22 inches long and the pattern includes transfers for stamping both ends of two towels.

The flowered, scalloped border illustrated on a towel is 3¼ inches wide and 3 yards and 4 corners are contained in the pattern. This border should be worked in solid work or eyelets and is appropriate for use on household linens, negligées and underwear.

Guaranteed, hot-iron transfer patterns will be supplied upon receipt of price, 10 cents each.

CONVENTION TO OPEN TONIGHT

Many Delegates Gather in Chicago For International Triennial Sunday School Gathering.

MAMMOTH PARADE SATURDAY

Keynote "Jesus Shall Reign" Brought Out in Opening Sermon By Bishop Anderson.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, June 23.—Nearly 5,000 delegates and alternates and several thousand visitors from all parts of the world were in Chicago today for the opening tonight of the fourteenth International Triennial Sunday School Convention, to be in session here for one week. "Jesus Shall Reign" is the convention keynote, printed on cards and flashed in electric signs. It will be the object of the convention sermon to be preached at the opening session in Medinah temple tonight by Rev. C. P. Anderson, bishop of the Chicago diocese of the Episcopal church.

Medinah temple, with a seating capacity of 6,000, will be the convention hall. but while the delegates are in session there, other meetings will be held daily in twelve of the largest churches. Conferences, congresses and discussions by smaller groups will be carried on in other Chicago churches while the main body of the delegates is transacting the convention's business. National and state prohibition, the relationship of the Sunday school to the public school, and the Sunday School's responsibility to foreign-speaking people, are three of the most important topics to be discussed at the convention. Among the speakers will be Richmond Pearson Hobson and Booker T. Washington. A mammoth parade, in which convention leaders hope to see 50,000 men in line, will move through the loop district on Saturday afternoon, June 27. The group conference will consider every phase of Sunday school work. There will be conferences on evangelism, rural Sunday schools, Sunday school music, social service, temperance and purity. Special conferences will relate to Sunday school work among college students. The report of Marion Lawrence, general secretary of the International Association will be read at a brief forenoon session tomorrow. The afternoon will be given over to conferences and in the evening Rev. W. J. Williamson, of St. Louis and Dr. Edward A. Stoiner, president of Grinnell college, Grinnell, Iowa, will speak.

Missionaries in this country on furlough will be banqueted Thursday night, following a day of conferences and brief addresses. Rev. Timothy Stone, former moderator of the Presbyterian general assembly and Rev. Edgar Blake, corresponding secretary of the board of Sunday schools of the M. E. church, are speakers at the evening session. A festival concerts, with a chorus of 1,000 girls, will be given in the Auditorium theatre Friday night as one of the special features of the convention. Preceeding the concert, the "superintendents, senate" will convene at the Auditorium hotel, Sunday school superintendents discussing many problems. At the same hour, Prof. William A. Wirt, superintendent of the model public schools at Gary, Ind., will speak on the public schools' co-operation with the Sunday schools.

DECIDED TITLE FOR RAILROAD

Supreme Court Rules 200,000 Acres of California Oil Land is Owned by Southern Pacific

IT IS WORTH $500,000,000

Question Involved Serious Because it Affects Titles of Millions of Acres of Land.

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 23.—The supreme court decided for the title claimed by the Southern Pacific railroad to 200,000 acres of California oil land worth $500,000,000. Railroad ownership was disputed by California, Detroit and Cleveland citizens who sought mineral deposits on the land claimed by the railroad under old construction land grants.

The court declared petroleum is a mineral. The question involved was serious, it held, for it affected the title of millions of acres bought from railroads including farms and sites of cities.

Power of the President to withdraw lands from public entry without specific authority from Congress was involved in the decision of the high court today. Development of oil lands of the public domain by private capital to the exclusion of the government was sought by the Midwest and other oil concerns disputing former President Taft's order. On September 27, 1909 Taft approved an order of the Secretary of the Interior withdrawing 3,041,000 acres of petroleum land in California and Wyoming from public entry under the mineral or non-mineral land laws. Of these 2,871,000 acres were in California and 170,000 acres in Natrona County, Wyoming.

In March 1910, entrymen claimed the Wyoming land, despite the executive order denying private development of the land. Large and valuable petroleum deposits were discovered. To validate the President's future action Congress passed a law in June, 1910 permitting withdrawals by the President. Since that time the oil land withdrawn in California, Wyoming, Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico and Utah aggregated over 4,000,000 acres, practically all known oil lands in the public domain. That the government needed the oil for the navy was the statement of Taft in his order. The withdrawals were made upon the recommendation of the Navy Department and the Geological Survey.

That Taft's order was void because no statute expressly gave such reservation authority to the President before 1910 was the contention of the Midwest Oil Company and other private interests. The government brought ejection suits against occupants of the Wyoming land involved. The federal district court of Wyoming dismissed the government's suit, decreeing that Taft had exceeded his authority, and the government appealed to the Supreme court.

CHIEF PERROTT SHOWS HE IS BOSS

Refuses to Allow Corner Policemen to Doff Coats During Hot Weather Despite Criticism.

DIGNITY WOULD BE LOWERED

Indianapolis, June 23.—Chief of Police Perrott demonstrated more conclusively that he is czar of the local police force when he refused recently to allow traffic officers to doff their coats during hot weather, even though this was allowed by an order of the board of public safety. Through the aid of Mayor Bell, Perrott succeeeded in persuading the board to rescind the order.

Thus was closed another interesting incident in the fight of certain newspapers on the Bell administration and Chief Perrott. Immediately the order was issued, Perrott was criticised for not having thought of his traffic squad sooner. He was pictured as going about in his shirt sleeves while the traffic squad, known as the cream of the police force, sweltered in the glaring sun forced to remain at their posts at street intersections.

Soon after this criticism appeared, Bell let it be known that he hadn't been neglecting the policemen at all, but that for the sake of discipline and efficiency he didn't intend to let them go without their coats. Perrott argued that the dignity and command of the traffic officers would be lowered if he appeared without his coat.

RUSHVILLE IS BELOW AVERAGE

Per Capita Cost of Fire Department is .223, According to Fire Marshal's Figures.

STATISTICS ARE PRESENTED

Shelbyville is Scored Because it is Largest City in State With Out Paid Department.

The state fire marshal has computed that the per capita cost of the fire extinguishing equipment used in Indiana cities averages $1.13. According to the table sent out by the fire marshal, Rushville is far below the average as the per capita cost here is only .223 cents.

The figures he presents are based on the reports made by city clerks to the state statistician and cover the twelve months ending December 31, 1913.

"The largest Indiana city without a department made up of 'regulars' is Shelbyville," says the fire marshal. "Here more than 9,500 people depend upon volunteers to extinguish all fires. While the per caita cost for equipment and maintenance in that city is naturally low, this does not necessarily indicate the most economy in securing fire fighting service. A city that depends upon volunteer fire fighting is in constant danger of a conflagration, arising from a fire which gets beyond control."

According to the firt marshal, the total value of the fire fighting equipment now used in the state will reach $3,250,000. An aditional $1,250,000 is required annually for maintenance.

In a bulletin from the fire marshal's office. the statistics are given in groups according to population. Rushville is included in the list ranging in populaton from 4,000 to 7,000. In the first column of the following table is given the population, in the second the per capita cost, the third column the number of regular firemen and in the last column the number of volunteer firemen:

Wilson Says he Will be as Critical as of Big Business

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 23.—If labor uses "big business" lobby methods President Wilson will be critical of it as he is now of the industrial element's element attempt to stab anti-trust legislation. This was his reply today to President Bush of Ohio Manufacturers' association who charged the president was not cognizant of the labor unions' methods while at the same time taking strong measures against big business.

Most Persons Attending M. E. Sunday School Outing Tomorrow Afternoon Will go on Interurban

SPORTING EVENTS PLANNED

The annual picnic of the St. Paul's M. E. Sunday school will be held at the fair grounds tomorrow. Most of the crowd will go on Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company cars. Special cars for the picnickers will leave the station here at one o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Returning cars may be secured anv time between five and seven o'clock in the evening.

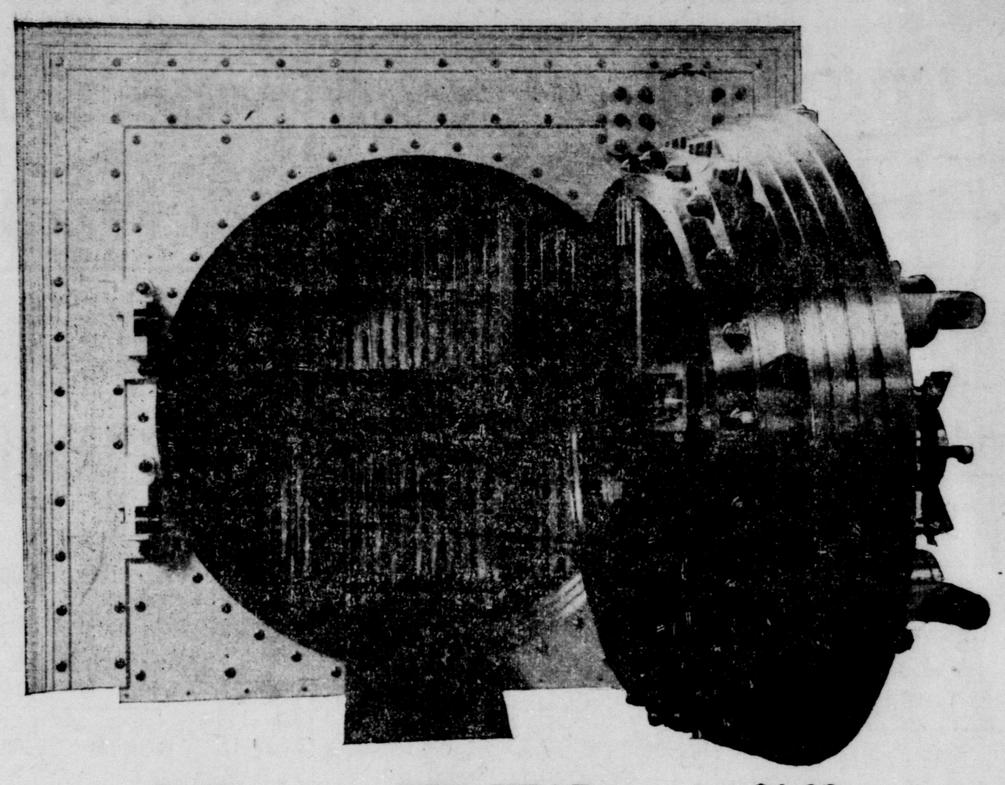

Great plans are being made for the picnic, which will resolve itself into a track and field meet. There will be many sorts of races. all of which the promoters are counting on being "hotly" contested. A ball game will be a rival attraction. The M. E. Sunday school picnic is always a very popular affair, and if the weather permits, it is expected the largest crowd that ever attended will be present.

REVERSES APPEAL COURT

Supreme Court Holds Religious Vow not Against Public Policy

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 23.—The supreme court reversed a decree of the Minnesota federal court of appeals which had ruled that religions "poverty vows" of monk and nuns signing away all property rights to their religious orders "are against public policy" and may be enforced during their life time, but not against their heirs after death. The court held the vow is not against public policy.

JUDGE ESCAPES IMPEACHMENT

House Judiciary Committee Recommends Today Emery Speer of Macon, Ga., Be Dismissed

STAMPS HIM AN AUTOCRAT

Says he Went as Close to the Line As Safety Would Permit on Many Occasions

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 23.—Judge Emery Speer of the United States district court at Macon, Georgia, was severely arraigned by the house judiciary committee today for misusing his high office, but hewas spared an impeachment trial because the committee believed there was not sufficient evidence of wrongdoing to warrant it. The committee report requested the house to drop the charges.

"Early in his judievial career," the majority report states, "Judge Speer ascertained the limit to which he could go before liability for impeachment for official conduct would accrue and went as close to the line upon many occasions as safety would permit."

Judge Speer was stamped "an autocrat" by the majority. "It was rare indeed that a jury was permitted to return a verdict contrary to his wishes regardless of the fact," said the report.

T. R. DENIES THAT HE SAID IT

Never Mentioned 1916 in an Interview Given out in London

New York, June 23.—A staff correspondent of a local newspaper on board the Imperator reported that when Col. Roosevelt saw a report that he had said publically that he would not run for govenor or senator but would be a candidate for president in 1916, he said it was true that he had said he would not be a candidate for govenor or senator, but said further he had never mentioned 1916.

Do You Wear a Truss?

If so you know how annoying it is to have an ill fitting one.
I pride myself on being able to adjust a truss properly.
It is more in the adjustment of a truss than in the truss itself that makes it a comfort to wear.
Let me fit your next one. It must be right or I do not want your money.
